Home Buyer Communication – Thank You Focus Group Attendees

The soon-to-be-launched, web-based BuildServ application is scheduled for beta launch in October, and will be provided to focus group attendees free of charge or obligation (no training fees, no access or support fees), for a trial period of six months.

Now perform Change Order Management, Share Construction Progress, Contracts & Documents, and communicate other services to your buyers, online, delivering the same buyer experience that larger builders provide to their customers, without spending all your working day on the phone with anxious home owners.
